

Keeping us safe in zoom

Please read the following information and conditions before you join/take part in our Zoom classes:

- You are responsible for ensuring the space used for Zoom classes is suitable and safe. This includes:
  - Please ensuring the space is of a sufficient size to accommodate you moving freely and the space should also be free from obstacles and dangerous items.
  - For children the device is to be set up in a communal space where a parent/adult is present (i.e. not bedrooms)
  - Anyone who may be visible during the class should always be dressed appropriately.
  - Please take extra care to ensure that private or sensitive data is not shared; for example, invoices, emails or letters (both physical and digital) should not be on display, especially where codes are given.
  - You should not allow your siblings/others to participate alongside you if they are not of the appropriate dance level to take part.
  - Please ensure you are warmed up before the dance class, and to inform the teacher of any injuries or conditions that they need to be aware of. If this is of a personal nature, you should send an email to the relevant school email address the day before the class.
  - We accept no liability for any injuries sustained by those participating in the classes, nor do we accept any liability for damage to personal property caused during the dance classes.
  - All under 16s must be supervised during the class by an appropriate adult.
  - By take part in these zoom classes and in being a part of our dance community, you agree to adhere to the above terms.
